

RULE 3: GLOVES

- 3.1 The gloves used in the competitions must have the leather portion not heavier than one-half (1/2) of the glove's total weight and the glove's inner pads must weight and least one-half (1/2) of the glove's total weight. It is not permitted to change the shape of the glove's inner pads or to rub the glove's inner pads in order for spreading them from the original shape.
- 3.2 In competitions, the boxer must use only the gloves certified by Board Boxing Sport in accordance with the regulations and provided the boxing stadium manager or the promoter.
- 3.3 The glove sizes for competitions are as follows:
 - 3.3.1 The boxer between the super the mini Flyweight division and the Featherweight division must use the gloves of six (6) ounces (132 games).
 - 3.3.2 The boxer between the Super Featherweight division and the Welterweight division must use the gloves eight (8) ounces (227 games).
 - 3.3.3 The boxer between the Super Welterweight division and over division must use the glove of ten (10) ounces (284 games).
- 3.4 The glove laces must be tied with knots behind the wrists. Glove wearing must be inspected and stamped by the authorized glove inspector who must observe and control glove wearing to insure that the boxer do it accordingly to rules until the boxers step into the ring.

The logo for WBC Muaythai is centered at the bottom of the page. It features the letters 'WBC' in a large, bold, grey sans-serif font. Below 'WBC' is a thick horizontal grey bar. Underneath the bar, the word 'MUAYTHAI' is written in a smaller, bold, grey sans-serif font. The entire logo is overlaid on a faint background image of a boxer in a ring, wearing a white and red striped glove.

WBC
MUAYTHAI